

Unión Latina
de Hemofilia

HNC Latin Union Event

*Dave & Buster's
Concord, NC*

Sunday, September 24, 2017
12:30pm - 2:30pm

Dave & Buster's
Champions Room & Hall
8361 Concord Mills Blvd
Concord, NC 28027

Join Hemophilia of North Carolina (HNC) at Dave & Buster's for an afternoon to celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month "Shaping the Bright Future of America," while also enjoying lunch, an educational presentation in Spanish, and play at the arcade! The Latin Union Program will feature a Hemophilia Federation of America (HFA) presentation, You Have the Right, led by Martha Boria, HFA Spanish Program Coordinator. This program will help you understand your right to use an interpreter in order to have good communication between your doctor/health care provider and you.

Martha was born and raised in Puerto Rico. She was a former elementary school teacher in Puerto Rico and New York. She is married and has two girls, both with vWD type 1.

RSVP by Monday, September 18. You may register online (preferred), www.hemophilia-nc.org or by phone, 855-462-5286 (Latin Union line), or by texting Gillian, 919-272-6000 or Charlene 919-271-4171. Space is limited.

You may find more information at www.hemophilia-nc.org.